Dr. Martha Shaw

Martha Shaw is a happily retired professor of music. A specialist in vocal pedagogy for all ages, she is active as a clinician and guest conductor throughout the United States. Her fifteen years of experience as a public school music specialist and twenty-eight years at the collegiate level contributed significantly to her university career, where she taught conducting, music education, and choir classes.

Dr. Shaw was the founding director of the Spivey Hall Children's Choir. Under her direction, the choir was featured in performances for state, regional, and national conventions of the American Choral Directors Association, for the national conference of the Orff-Schulwerk Association and for the 2010 national conference of Chorus America. The choir was also featured on NPR's Performance Today and From the Top. In the fall of 2023, Dr. Shaw founded the Young Singers of Flint Hall at Reinhardt University.

Dr. Shaw served on the faculties of Reinhardt University and Shorter University. She also taught at the University of South Carolina, where she earned a Doctor of Musical Arts in Conducting with Larry Wyatt. Studying with Donald Neuen, she earned a Master of Science in Music Education from the University of Tennessee. She holds a Bachelor of Music Education from Shorter College.

Debra Terning, Accompanist

Debra Terning maintains an active schedule collaborating with private studios, schools, churches, and community ensembles in the Atlanta area. She accompanies several local middle and high schools in both their choral and musical theatre productions.

Originally from Minnesota, she received a bachelor's degree from the University of Northwestern (St. Paul) and a master's degree from the University of Iowa. She has served as staff accompanist at Bethel, Brenau, and Reinhardt Universities, accompanies the Johns Creek Chorale, and performs with the Johns Creek Symphony Orchestra. Her favorite collaborations, though, are with her two adult children, who are also musicians.

Dr. Melissa Arasi

Dr. Arasi is the founding artistic director of the Atlanta Women's Chorus, founded in 2013 as a sibling chorus of the Atlanta Gay Men's Chorus. Before this position, Dr. Arasi served as the Supervisor of Performing Arts: General/Choral Music, Theatre, and Dance for the Cobb County School District in Marietta, Georgia, for sixteen years and the Choral Director and Fine Arts Department Chair at Walton High School in Cobb County for fourteen years. Dr. Arasi has also served as an assistant professor/lecturer of music at the Georgia Institute of Technology, Reinhardt University, Kennesaw State University, and Georgia State University.

Dr. Arasi received a bachelor's degree in music education from Shorter College in Rome, Georgia; a Master's Degree in Music Education and a Ph.D. in Teaching and Learning in Music Education with a concentration in choral music and a cognate in leadership from Georgia State University. She received her Educational Leadership Certification from the University of West Georgia.

Choirs under her direction have performed at Carnegie Hall, Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, and in Montreal, Quebec City, Venice, Florence, Rome, Vienna, Budapest, and Prague. Dr. Arasi frequently conducts honor choirs, serves as a clinician and adjudicator in Georgia and in the Southeast, and is a member of MENC, GMEA, and ACDA.

Susan Wallace, Accompanist

Susan Wallace serves as Assistant Choral Director at Milton High School and currently conducts the Select Treble and Bella Voce choirs. She oversees three extracurricular choirs and teaches AP Music Theory and Piano Classes. Before joining our Milton Fine Arts department, Susan served as Director of Choral Activities at Pace Academy in Atlanta, GA.

She is an active member of Georgia Music Educators Association, American Choral Directors Association and MENC. Susan holds a Bachelor of Music Education degree from Shorter College where she studied conducting with John Ratledge, piano with Mr. William Knight and voice with Dr. Shirley Brumbaugh. Having also been a staff accompanist at Reinhardt University, Susan accompanies various choral groups in the Atlanta area, including the Orpheus Men's Ensemble. She assists as a music director at Orbit Arts Academy and serves as the Director of Music Ministry at Sandy Springs Christian Church.
